

The principal shall make a reasonable assignment for every teacher of extra-curricular duties and/or the supervision of pupils on the playground, in the corridors, or lunchrooms, or at school activities held outside of school hours. All meetings must be scheduled and must be held in a school building. Any exceptions must be approved by the building principal. Every staff member is expected to assume his responsibilities. Failure to assume such responsibilities shall be considered a failure in fulfilling the requirements of the assignment.

AMENDED: August 21, 1978